In a modern world after information revolution, not only technological system but situation inside society has been changed. New generation started to give a prefer to the career and self-development instead of traditional values like marriage, making a family and house work.

This general decision have affected all aspects of human life. It have leaded to the gender equality, women emancipation, opened the doors for young specialists. But despite a lot of advantages of choosing career, older people have a number of biases in relation to this changing. They worried about mental health, future of their children and think that career grow put a barrier for the personal life.

But the results of young people silently show that their choice help them in all areas of life. We heard a lot of stories in news and social media about success of teenagers and students, young specialists and entrepreneurs. Their work hadn't have negative impact on their lives. It developed their as a people, explored their inner horizons, increased their confidence and self-awareness. Therefore, the success, fame and glory is just a bonus of the hard work. The rest results is closed from other eyes.

In conclusion, I would like to say that choosing a career is an important decision, it must be make for everybody's own. But after people will make a steps for the new business, the road will appear and give them new knowledge, lessons and strength for going through any difficulties.

IV. Writing

E) Hello dear readers!

What do you think about career? Career is very important way and part of life in our lives. A lot of people thinks, that successful career starts, when you will be 25-30+, because of this for others it can look strange, when young people or teenager chooses career over his young free times, or maybe instead of lessons. I wouldn't say that it's bad or good. Choosing career in when you're still quite young have bad sides, but it also have good sides too.

So, let's answer the question "It is important that people choose a career when they are still quite young"

Firstly, I will say yes, because young people starts growing faster if he will choose career. He will know how to manage with money, how to communicate with people. Also they can know their price, for me it's one of the important things that shows, that person is adult, not in the age.

Secondly, they are doing their own choices. Young people made an his own choice, by choosing career, is it bad? Of course it can be dangerous, but why he musn't try?

Thirdly, founding their own place. By choosing career, most of us can find our place. It can be career of musician, businessman, or other kind of works, where they can find ^{their} have career path

It also can have bad side, like: Now I said, it can be dangerous, they can be not ready for adulthood or pressure that it gives. But I said it later, why you can't try? Think about it

In conclusion, When young people choose career, it will be hard, but if he really wants it, and will try hard, he can complete his goals. If you want to choose career, do it, maybe it's your best chance
